LIVINGSTON CLEGG MONTGOMERY

L. C. Montgomery was born October 3, 1888, in Heber City, Utah, son of Livingston and Amelia Ann Clegg Montgomery, Utah pioneers.

His early education was received in the Heber schools, completing his high school years after serving a mission for the LDS Church in the Northern States from 1909 to 1912. He attended Brigham Young University in Provo and was graduated from the University of Utah law school, coming to Heber City to practice law in 1916.

He married Edna Lodell, daughter of Joseph and Martha Lodell of Chicago, Illinois, in the Salt Lake Temple on February 3, 1921. They became the parents of two splendid sons, Robert L. Montgomery, a bank executive, and Edward L. Montgomery, a prominent attorney. There are five grandchildren.

Mr. Montgomery held many offices of trust. He was elected mayor of Heber City for one term and was a stalwart in the Democratic party in Utah. L. C., as he was called, was a fearless defender for the rights of the people of Wasatch County and served as county attorney for 22 years. He was president of the Utah Cattle and Horse Growers' Assn. for 17 years and in 1937 was named to a trade commission board by Gov. Henry H. Blood to investigate unfair trade practices. In 1941, L. C. was elected vice president of the American Livestock Assn. An outspoken positivist of the old school in the western livestock industry, Mr. Montgomery's influence was extensively felt in formulation of policies on grazing on the public domain. L. C. was a former member of the board of trustees of Utah State University and was a director of the Commercial Bank of Utah. He was an active member of the LDS Church all his life.

His wife Edna died February 3, 1951. He married Mrs. Eva Bonner Jensen on April 28, 1952, in the Mesa LDS Temple. Mr. Montgomery passed away suddenly in the evening of July 18, 1952, of a coronary embolism, at the age of 63 years.

—Submitted by W. Neil Muir

James Stacy Murdock, son of Joseph Stacy and Elizabeth Hunter Murdock, was born December 8, 1861, at American Fork, Utah. His parents moved the family to Heber, Wasatch County. Utah, in 1862, where he lived a full life.

As a young man, he and his brother, Alva M., built and managed the first livery stable in Heber. They operated a freight line between Heber and the Uintali Basin and carried the U. S. mail between Heber and Park City, Utah.

James always was a man of industry and foresight, an ardent sportsman and a builder for his community, as well as for himself. He was known throughout the West as one of its most prominent stockmen and woolgrowers. Many people were employed in his various interests. He was civic-minded to the extent that at times he bore the expense of promoting issues he believed to be for the public good. The retaining of the Heber Light & Power Company for the community, being an example. The people of the city were about to sell the plant to the Utah Light & Power Company when he and his life-long friend, James W. Clyde, hired an electrical engineer to prove to the community what a valuable asset they possessed. The company is still owned by the James played baseball, hunted and fished as hobbies, and being an ardent lover of horses, he bred and raced standard-bred horses for a time.

He held many public offices during his lifetime. He was elected sheriff in 1891, serving eight years. From 1893 to 1901 he held the position of County Fish and Game Commissioner. He was a director of the Bank of Heber City many years.

He married Dora Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas and Johanna Kirstine Nicol, on February 23, 1882, in the Salt Lake Endowment House. To this couple two sons and six daughters were born: Mrs. Charles E. (Josephine) Bronson, Alva Pierce, Curtis Thomas, Mrs. Thomas (Criss) Jones, Mrs. Lester D. (May) Greenwood, Mrs. Andrew J. (Hope) Mohr, Mrs. Durrel T. (Clara) Burningham, and Mrs. Eldon (Beth) Ritchie.

During the later part of her life, Dora was an invalid. The loving care James conferred on her and the children lives in the memory of his family and friends. She passed away on October 29, 1907.

On February 27, 1913, James married Violet McNiven, daughter of James and Lydia McNiven. She died May 25, 1933.

James was a big, genial man, a good friend and neighbor, always ready to contribute time and money to any worthy cause.

He passed away in Salt Lake City. January 12, 1936, and was buried in the family plot in Heber City Cemetery.

Chairpersons' Message

We, on behalf of the Fairboard, wish to welcome you all to the Heber Valley Fair Days. We have worked hard to, hopefully, be able to present to you a program that you will be able to enjoy and be proud of.

Come and join us during Fair week and participate in as many events as you are able to — you will catch the "Spirit" of the Mountain Magic found only in our Valley by rubbing shoulders with your friends, neighbors, and visitors through participating in the many wholesome activities you will find described in our Fair Book.

A special thanks to our Commissioners, Fairboard, and Chairpersons, who worked very hard to give you the Mountain Magic of Heber Valley Fair Days. 1990

IOHN M. AND SARAH ELIZABETH WRIGHT RITCHIE

John M. Ritchie was born October 30, 1867 at Heber City, Wasatch County, son of John Ritchie and Sarah McAffee. Married Sarah Elizabeth Wright November 4. 1891. She was born August 27, 1869, daughter of William Wright and Jemima Dands Wright. John died October 8, 1938. Sarah died January 17, 1958.

John M. Ritchie was the eldest of a family of eleven. The family moved to Charleston when he was young where he lived the rest of his life. The family made a living by selling butter and grain at Park City.

He attended the BYU also the University of Deseret and was a teacher in the District School at the age of 24, when he married

Sarah E. Wright.

It was New Years day 1897 when he left on a mission to Australia leaving his wife and two small children for two and a half years.

The railroad in this valley was near completion and he was appointed the first express agent. He was elected the first mayor of Charleston.

His living was made from farming and livestock. He was recognized as one of the outstanding horse breeders of the intermountain region. One of his hobbies was horse pulling contests which he often engaged in and won his share of honors.

Most of his time was spent in public service. He served on the County and State Fair Boards for many years. He was county commissioner in charge of roads and 1035 pioneered the first grading and shaping of roads with the borrow-pit in this county. Finding that horse drawn equipment was not adequate, he purchased through the county, the first caterpillar and heavy duty grader.

He was one of a committee that fought for a high school when there was much opposition to it. He staged a one-man fight in Charleston to persuade the people that it should be built in Heber and not on the prairie.

He served Charleston Ward as Bishop for 31 years.

He was a great organizer, a man of much foresight and ability.

When a small child, Sarah, with her parents, and seven brothers and sisters moved to lower Charleston. Her mother died with the ninth child and her father married Mary Baum to whom 16 children were born.

Her childhood days were spent milking cows, cooking, herding sheep, making soap, knitting sox and tending babies. She attended her father's school in the old McAffee Shop one mile from her home and later three and a half miles to Charleston, walking most of the time.

When 17 years of age she began working in the Charleston Store, owned by her brother-in-law, Joseph R. Murdock, where she worked until her marriage to John M. Ritchie.

She spent 25 years working in the Presidency of the Relief Society, sewing for the dead, and preparing them for burial, cooking for ward parties and entertaining as wife of a bishop for nearly 30 years. Her home was the stopping place for traveling troupes. tramps, salesmen, church and state officials.

John and Sarah were the parents of eight children: Mable, Lacy, Vera, Elden, Clyde, Horace, Verdell, Relva.

JOHN M. RITCHIE, a native son of Utah, prominent farmer and stock breeder of Wasatch County and bishop of the Charleston Ward of the Wasatch Stake, is a prominent representative of a family which has been identified with the civic, industrial and religious progress of this section of Utah since pioneer times.

Bishop Ritchie was born in the Heber community of Wasatch County, October 30, 1867, son of John and Sarah (McFee) Ritchie. His father came to Wasatch County in 1863, and from 1867 was a resident of the Charleston district. He was a hard worker, a high minded citizen, and lived to a very ripe old age, passing away at Charleston in February, 1932, in his eighty-ninth year.

The pioneer public schools of Wasatch County afforded John M. Ritchie his earlier education. Later he took the young men's course and the commercial course in Brigham Young University at Provo, and for two and a half years was a student at the University of Utah. Mr. Ritchie in 1892 began teaching at Charleston, but since 1894 his primary attention has been directed to his growing agricultural and live stock interests. He had specialized in the breeding and raising of fine cattle and horses and his Percheron horses and Hereford cattle have a reputation all over the state. His prominent position as a live stock man received special recognition in 1930, when he was appointed a member of the board of trustees of the Utah State Fair. In 1932 he became president of the Wasatch County Fair Board.

Mr. Ritchie has been a man of tireless public spirit in community affairs. He was the first president of the Charleston Township board and has continued an active member of this board for many years. He has also served for a number of years as township trustee and for twelve years was a member of the board of county commissioners, serving as chairman of the board four terms. During 1897-99 he was absent from his native state on a church mission to Australia. On returning in 1899, he became a counselor to the bishop of his home ward. He filled that position for five years, when he was made bishop of the Charleston Ward, which position he still holds.

Bishop Ritchie married in October, 1891, Miss Sarah E. Wright, daughter of William Wright of the Charleston district. Mrs. Ritchie is a popular worker in her church and community and for eighteen years was counselor to the president of the relief society.

To the marriage of Bishop and Mrs. Ritchie were born nine children. Mabel, who passed away April 30, 1931, was the wife of William H. Hinlin, of Charleston. Another daughter, Vera, died about a year after her marriage, and the son Joseph William died in infancy. The living children are: Lacy, wife of Robert Nowers, of Beaver County; Elden, who married Miss Beth Murdock, of Heber; Clyde, who in 1930 completed a church mission to the State of North Carolina, and is now active in business in Wasatch County and president of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association of the Charleston Ward; Horace, on a church mission to Samoa; and Verdell and Relva, who are still
